In silence, we pray.

For the word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

The Lord be with you.
And with thy spirit.
Hear to the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Saint N ✠ Glory be to thee, O Lord.

Merciful Father,
accept these prayers for the sake of thy Son, our Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

THE LITURGY OF THE SACRAMENT

The President introduces the Peace.

Christ is our peace. If anyone is in Christ, there is a new creation.
The old has passed away: behold, everything has become new.
The Peace of the Lord be always with you.
And with thy spirit.

The altar is prepared and then the president takes the bread and the cup, saying either of the following:

Word made flesh, life of the world, in your incarnation you embraced our poverty: by your Spirit may we share in your riches.
Amen.

or

Open the heavens, Holy Spirit, for us to see Jesus interceding for us; may we be willing to share his baptism, ready to share his cup and strengthened to serve him for ever.
Amen.

The Lord be with you
and with thy spirit.
Lift up your hearts.
We lift them up unto the Lord.
Let us give thanks unto the Lord our God.
It is meet and right so to do.

All honour and praise be yours always and everywhere,
mighty creator, ever-living God,
through Jesus Christ your only Son our Lord:
for at this time we celebrate your glory made present in our midst.
In the coming of the magi
the King of all the world was revealed to the nations.
In the waters of baptism, Jesus was revealed as the Christ,
the Saviour sent to redeem us.
In the water made wine

the new creation was revealed at the wedding feast.
Poverty was turned to riches, sorrow into joy.
Therefore with all the angels of heaven
we lift our voices to proclaim the glory of your name
and offer our joyful hymn of praise:

Holy, holy, holy, Lord God of hosts, heaven and earth are full of thy glory. Glory be to thee, O Lord most high. Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

We praise and bless you, loving Father, through Jesus Christ, our Lord; and as we obey his command, send your Holy Spirit, that broken bread and wine outpoured may be for us the body and blood of your dear Son.

On the night before he died he had supper with his friends and, taking bread, he praised you. He broke the bread, gave it to them and said:

Take, eat; this is my body which is given for you; do this in remembrance of me.

When supper was ended he took the cup of wine. Again he praised you, gave it to them and said:

Drink this, all of you; this is my blood of the new covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me.

So, Father, we remember all that Jesus did, in him we plead with confidence his sacrifice made once for all upon the cross. Bringing before you the bread of life and cup of salvation, we proclaim his death and resurrection until he comes in glory.

Great is the mystery of faith:

Christ has died. Christ is risen. Christ will come again.

Lord of all life, help us to work together for that day when your kingdom comes and justice and mercy will be seen in all the earth. Look with favour on your people, gather us in your loving arms and bring us with Blessed Mary and all the saints to feast at your table in heaven. Through Christ, and with Christ, and in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all honour and glory are yours, O loving Father, for ever and ever.

Amen.

Please SIT or KNEEL.

Silent Prayer

Believing the promises of God, let us pray with confidence as our Saviour has taught us:

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, the power and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

The president breaks the consecrated bread for all to share:

Every time we eat this bread and drink this cup,
we proclaim the Lord's death until he comes.

We say Agnus Dei:

Jesus Lamb of God, have mercy on us.
Jesus, bearer of our sins, have mercy on us.
Jesus, redeemer of the world, grant us peace.

The president invites all to receive Holy Communion:

Jesus is the Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world.
Blessed are those who are called to his supper.
Lord, I am not worthy that thou shouldest come under my roof, but speak the word only and my soul shall be healed.

All taking part online are encouraged to make their Spiritual Communion, using the following prayer:

Lord Jesus Christ,
grant, that as the hem of your garment,
touched in faith,
healed the woman who could not touch your body,
so the soul of your servant may be healed by faith in you,
whom I cannot now sacramentally receive;
through your tender mercy,
who lives and reigns with the Father
in the unity of the Holy Spirit ever one God,
world without end.
Amen.

THE DISMISSAL

The President prays the Post Communion prayer, then:

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Christ the Son of God perfect in you the image of his glory and gladden your hearts with the good news of his kingdom;

✠ and the blessing of God almighty,
the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit,
be among you and remain with you now and always.

Amen.

We have seen his glory, the glory revealed to all the nations.
Go in the peace of Christ.

Thanks be to God
